Reasonable Adjustments:

If you need any reasonable adjustments or require any accessibility support, please do let us know by emailing our Facilities team and we will try and accommodate your requests.

Here are some examples of adjustments that can be made but we are always open to discussions on how we can best accommodate:

- Hard copy presentation/materials - Handouts can be printed to replicate what is being shown on screen
- Text size/font - Increased text size or specific font available and potential to further enhanced with special technology
- Time - Additional time may be incorporated into test situations
- Wellbeing room - Quiet room available if needed.
